History 141 Test Number 2, Chapters 5-7

Below are some study questions that should help you for test 2.

1. What revolutionized the living pattern of the Cheyenne, Shoshone, and Comanche?
2. By 1750 the colonial population was?
3. How did South Carolina attempt to increase its white population?
4. What was the Albany Congress?
5. Who were the “New lights” and why are they significant?
6. Who was George Whitefield?
7. Where was the Breadbasket of Colonial America?
8. What was the most prosperous segment of New England’s economy by 1750?
9. By 1750 the greatest concentration of wealth was found in Which part fo the colonies?
10. By the 1750’s the Pennsylvania was largely influenced by what new immigrant group?
11. What was the “Great Wagon Road”?
12. Where were German immigrants most likely to settle? On the Frontier, in towns?
13. What were the factors in the increase of the colonial population?
14. What territorial changes where brought on by the Treaty of Paris in 1763?
15. What was the Pontiac Revolt?
16. Why was there a Proclamation of 1763?
17. What did John Wilkes do?
18. Why did Grenville decide to keep a large garrison in the Americas?
19. What did Grenville hope the Sugar Act would accomplish?
20. Why was the Sugar Act disliked by Americans?
21. Reactions to the stamp act in the various colonial cities.
22. Why were Cato’s letters important?
23. Did the British government inflame the divisions among the colonies?
24. What issue was raised in “Letters from a Farmer in Pennsylvania”?
25. How did the colonists protest the various acts?
26. “On what night were the foundations of American independence laid?”
27. Why was Saratoga important?
28. When did the shooting begin in the Revolution?
29. What were the advantages for the British in fighting in the south?
30. Who was George Rogers Clark and why was he important?
31. What was the objective the Britain’s “Northern Strategy”?
32. What were the Coercive acts?
33. Stamp Act Congress?
34. Why were backwoods North Carolinian’s upset at their legislature?
35. Thomas Paine’s Common Sense promoted?