History 141 Test Number Two, Chapters 6-10

Below are some study questions that should help you for test one.
If you do not understand a question please give me an email and we can discuss it.
The test is composed of 37 questions and 3 extra Credit question. Question 40 is a survey question

1. For most colonials the fundamental problem with England as the revolution approached was?
2. After the French and Indian War the British government attempted to do what to its empire?
3. Why did the British believe they could tax the colonies?
4. Was there a difference between the Sugar Act and the Stamp Act? What type of reaction did colonials have to the Stamp Act?
5. What Philosophers influenced the Revolution?
6. By the early 1770's what did colonials think the British were attempting to do?
7. What did Thomas Paine write and for what reason?
8. How did Britain deal with the American rebellion?
9. What was Washington's strategy in fighting the British?
10. Who followed the British and American Armies?
11. Early in the Revolution the British Strategy focused on?
12. Saratoga is important because?
13. Towards the end of the revolutionary war the continental army was primarily composed of what social class?
14. Why did the British agree to end the war, other than the Battle of Yorktown?
15. What authority did the Articles of Confederation give the Federal government?
16. What did the economic growth of the American Southwest depend on?
17. The Northwest Ordinance?
18. Mary Wollstonecraft is important because?
19. What were some of the critical compromises in the writing of the Constitution?
20. African Americans made up what percentage of population in 1790 (the Early republic)?
21. The political and social affiliations of subsistence farmers vs. commercial farmers and merchants
22. What precedents did George Washington set during his presidency?
23. What was Hamilton's financial plan?
24. What did Hamilton think of the Whiskey Rebellion?
25. Where were the two political parties of the early republic strongest?
26. What were the various responses to the Sedition Acts?
27. Jefferson was a proponent of what?
28. Marbury vs. Madison?
29. Jefferson saw the west as?
30. What did Lewis and Clark do?
31. Why is Tecumseh important?
32. Impressment?
33. What were the results of the war of 1812? How did it make Americans feel?
34. What battle destroyed Indian military power in the “old southwest?”
35. How did Federalist influence government even when they were no longer in power?
36. Monroe Doctrine?
37. Missouri Compromise?